CASTLE-CROWN WILDERNESS COALITION

Andy Russell

These words and his many stories of the high country inspired a generation of activists to work to preserve the wild Rockies. In June 2005, Andy, one of Canada’s foremost conservationists and authors, passed on. Join HRH The Duke of Edinburgh, Robert Bateman, Farley Mowat, Sid Marty and many others in their efforts to designate the Castle Wilderness as the Andy Russell-I’tai sah köp Park.
